August 3, 2024

RATIONALE

- * NFHS Rules are different from other Rules Making Bodies
- * NFHS Rules are Educationally Based
- * High School Athletics are an extension of the classroom
- * Participation is an important element of High School Athletics

Beginning Fall of 2024

- * A player receiving a second caution for Misconduct will be Ejected from the contest for the remainder of that contest but may play in any future contests that day at all levels
- * The team will be permitted to substitute for that Ejected player
- * The Ejected player may play in any contests the next play day

PIAA ADOPTION

- A player(s) shall be disqualified (yellow and red card) and the number of players on the field shall not be reduced for:
 - a. a subsequent caution

NOTE: The PIAA will not require that an Ejection form be submitted if a player receives a Soft Red. You are required to submit a report for any player Ejected for a Hard Red infraction

Procedure

- * The player is issued their first caution for Misconduct
- * If a player receives a second caution for Misconduct the player will be shown both a yellow card and red card simultaneously
- * That player must leave that contest but may be substituted for UNLESS that player while leaving the playing area commits Misconduct that warrants a straight Red Card. That player will be shown the Red Card and the team will not be able to sub for that player. That player will now be subject to the consequences for receiving a straight Red Card.
 - * Mechanic- Do not beckon the substitute for a player receiving a yellow/red card until that player has returned to the technical area as that player remains the player of record until a substitute is beckoned
